

Network for the Study of Early Christianity in Its Graeco-Roman Context

Seminar in Reykjavik, 24-27 September 2008
on
Archaeology, Text, and Historical Interpretation

P R O G R A M

24 September:

Arrival in Iceland: Check in at Cabin Hotel, Reykjavik

18:30 Dinner

21:15 Lecture by Jon Ma. Asgeirsson, University of Iceland:
Nothing to Do with Matter: The Ideological Construction of the Historical Narrative

25 September: (Morning: Jon Ma. Asgeirsson Presiding / Afternoon: Halvor Moxnes Presiding)

08:00 Breakfast at Hotel

08:45 Departure for the University Library

09:00 Welcome by Jon Ma. Asgeirsson

09:15 Lecture by Halvor Moxnes, University of Oslo:
Landscape and Space as Perspectives in Early Christian Studies

10:00 Student Papers

12:00 Lunch

13:30 Lecture by Jonathan L. Reed, University of La Verne:
From Galilee to Ephesus: Domestic Space and Christian Origins

14:30 Student Papers

16:30 Coffee

17:00 Lecture by Raimo Hakola, University of Helsinki:
The Gospel of John in the Context of the Mediterranean Diaspora

17:45 Panel Discussions

19:30 Dinner

Network for the Study of Early Christianity in Its Graeco-Roman Context

Seminar in Reykjavik, 24-27 September 2008
on

Archaeology, Text, and Historical Interpretation

PROGRAM

26 September: (Morning: Risto Uro Presiding / Afternoon: Anders-Christian Lund Jacobsen Presiding)

08:00 Breakfast at Hotel

08:45 Departure for the National Museum

09:15 Lecture by Rubina Raja, University of Aarhus:
The Sacred Landscape of the Decapolis with a Particular Focus on Gerasa

10:00 Student Papers

12:00 Lunch

13:30 Lecture by Steinunn J. Kristjánsdóttir, University of Iceland:
The Christianization Process in Early Medieval Iceland: Hybridization of Cultural and Religious Identities

14:30 Student Papers

16:30 Coffee

17:00 Lecture by Risto Uro, University of Helsinki:
From Corpse Impurity to Relic Veneration: New Light from Cognitive and Psychological Studies

17:45 Panel Discussions

19:30 Dinner

27 September: Departure