

WORKSHOP

Borderland Religion

Migration and Religion: A Mutual Impact

November 12 – 14

Union Theological Seminary and the CUNY Graduate Center
New York, NY

Thursday November 12

Union Theological Seminary, Room 36

D. Machado, UTS/ T. Wyller, Oslo: Welcome – Borderland and Reformatting Religion

M. Seifert, Texas: Texas/Borderland Narratives – Lived Experience

D. Machado, UTS: Santa Muerte – The Narcosaint Redefines Borderland Religion

F. Settler, PMB: A postcolonial perspective on religion and migration

*L. Phiri, PMB: Queering Borders – The case of diverse sexualities in Zambia and
South Africa*

H-J Sander, Salzburg: Religion-making in the Border Space

*M. Seifert: Reflections on the Day's Work –
A View From the Border*

A workshop at Union Theological Seminary and the CUNY Graduate Center, in cooperation with the GOBA-project (Faculty of Theology, University of Oslo,
Norway), and The Thuthuka
Migration and Religion Program (University of Kwazulu-Natal,
South Africa).

Friday, November 13

The CUNY Graduate Center, Room 9100

John Torpey, New York: Welcome

J. Carens, Toronto: Ethics of Migration

R. Forlenza and B. Turner, New York: The Abendland and After – Religious borders in the construction of the European Union

K. Villadsen, Copenhagen: Is Migration a Counter-Conduct?

Saturday, November 14

Union Theological Seminary, Room 36

T. Wyller, Oslo: A Heterotopic Power of the Powerless – Reformatting Religion in Congolese Borderland Services in Pietermaritzburg

S. Kumalo, PMB: "Singing the Lord's songs in a Foreign Land" – Migration, Citizenship and Religion in South Africa.

*M. Seifert: Between Religion and Politics –
A View From the Border*