Schedule – autumn 2019, PhDs and post doctors

Update November 5th.

1 PhD-fellowship, Ethics and Philosophy of Religion: The process has been finalized. Applicants have been informed.

3 PhD-fellowships related to TF research groups: The process will, according to the new plan, be finished by November 20. Interviews are underway.

1 PhD-fellowship, Interreligious studies: We hope to finish during December. Interviews are underway.

2 Postdoctoral fellowships related to TF research groups: We hope to finish during December, but the process may be further delayed. Interviews have not started (by November 5th.)

The process is delayed and does not follow the plan set out below. Interviews are underway for (some of) the PhD-fellowship positions, but not yet the Postdoctoral fellowships.

The final decision will be delayed for at least a month.

September 1: Application deadline

September 2/3: Message to applicants, assessment committees starts working

September 23/24: Assessments are ready. Applicant may ask for their assessment.

September 30 onwards: Invitation to interviews
Interviews will take place during week 41, preferably Oct. 7, 8 and 10.

October 7: Deadline for comments to the assessment from applicants

October 18/19: Nomination is ready

October 23 onwards: The appointment committee decides who is offered the positions, the successful applicants are informed, employment agreements are made

October 29/30/31: Applicants are informed about who is appointed

Appointment from February 1, 2020